

Rocky Mountain Theatre Festival is being held at Grandstreet Theatre this year! Feb. 10-13th. Cost is $60.00 for students and $75.00 for adults. This conference is open to anyone and is full of workshops, competitions, auditions, and productions. For more information check out the website www.rmta.net

There are also still openings for the Youth Festival Feb. 12 & 13th at Carroll College. Forms are available on line at www.rmta.net or from Marianne at GST. Cost is $35.00. This is open to 3rd grade and up. Keynote speaker Bill Bowers is an amazing actor/mime (he played the original Zazu in The Lion King on Broadway). Lots of fun workshops too!

REGISTER FOR THE FESTIVAL AT www.rmta.net The cost goes up by $10.00 on Monday so register soon!

We will be needing lots of volunteers. We need workshop presenters, timers, door monitors, registration workers, ticket takers, ushers, etc. Please call or email Marianne if you would like to volunteer.

- Sneak Preview for Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf is this Thursday at 7:00 p.m. This production runs about 3 hours and is probably most appropriate for 7th grade and up. The production runs through January 30th so make your reservations to see it.
- No class on Monday, January 18th
- Auditions for You Can't Take it With You are Sunday and Monday. More info on the website at www.grandstreettheatre.com
- Showcase will be April 24 & 25th. Mark your calendars now!
