

Here is a general list of shoes, etc. that actors should bring to their first dress rehearsal after Thanksgiving. If you have any questions, please e-mail Emily (our costumer) at emily\_forsman@yahoo.com. If you're not listed in one of these groups, you can send Emily any costume questions. Neutral stage make-up is all that is required for most (base, blush, eye-liner/mascara). If you're unsure about what your child needs, please ask. Make-up is not necessary until their second dress rehearsal.
