For 13-18 year olds

____ I understand that this is a tuition-based program and that tuition is $370.00. This tuition includes ten acting and musical theatre classes.

____ I will need scholarship money in order to attend this program. If so, how much _____

____ I will need Grandstreet Theatre to find housing for me and I understand the cost for this is $800 to $1100.00. This will pay for housing and not food.

____ I am interested in one of the 4 acting internships that are available. These internships do not include the acting and musical theatre classes, only a role in the productions.

18 year olds and up

____ I am interested in one of the 4 acting internships that are available. These internships do not include the acting and musical theatre classes, only a role in the productions.

____ I would like to be considered for a role(s) in the summer season and a paid position on your teaching staff.

Please understand that it is our job to put together the best ensemble of actors for the production. We will not cast everyone who auditions and if we feel we cannot cast the show from the pool of applicants we have the right to look elsewhere or change the production if necessary.

Please keep this portion for your records

We will mail notification letters out on by March 15, 2017. You will have until March 18th to accept or decline the role and submit a non-refundable $50.00 deposit (for tuition based program only).

Rehearsals will begin on June 23 (show #1) and July 8th (Cry Baby) and will be held every day (except Sundays) through Aug.3rd. Show #1 performances are July 8-23rd. Cry Baby performances are August 3-12.
NO ABSENCES/CONFLICTS will be allowed.
