A NOTE FROM THE DIRECTOR

I have my parents to thank for my love of musical theatre. I can remember how excited I'd get to pick out movies at the little local video rental place. I would return to the classics they introduced me to: Singin' in the Rain, American In Paris, Oklahoma!, & The Music Man. But my favorite, the one they eventually bought a copy of, was Guys and Dolls. THAT MUSIC—that opening trio, those romantic melodies, the exotic thrill of Cuba, the humor, and “Rockin’ the Boat”—I was hooked.

I have lived and breathed this show for 45 years. To have the chance to watch it come to life with all the energy, enthusiasm, and excitement that this incredible group of actors has given to this story has brought my heart and soul nothing but joy night after night, after week, after month...leading to this performance that you are watching. Sure there's the story of sin vs. piety, luck vs. destiny, guys vs. dolls, but the story you get to experience is so much more than that. It is the story of inevitabilities, of following your heart, of knowing who you are, of meeting others halfway, of learning how “to be tolerant” of the “world-wide weakness” that is love.

Love... I have loved this show because of the love that my parents shared with me, and I passed my love for all of it along to these actors and our incredible team, and, in turn, we share that love with you.

We hope you walk out of Grandstreet with a spring in your step, humming these songs, with a big smile on your face. Thank you for letting us share this with you. ~ Liz Adler

CAST BIOS

Abby Calnan (Sarah) is thrilled to return for her fifth Grandstreet Theatre appearance! A homeschool sophomore, she debuted as a Napkin in Disney's Beauty and the Beast JR. and was recently seen in Disney's Frozen JR. as the Housekeeper/Oaken Family. From learning to juggle for Junie B. Jones JR. the Musical to joining this amazing cast, Abby treasures every moment spent in community theatre. She sends her heartfelt thanks to the cast and crew, and to her parents for driving her to every. single. rehearsal.

Leslie Carr (Benny), a sophomore at HHS, has attended GSTS since kindergarten. Over the years he has enjoyed many roles, some favorites being the Scarecrow in The Wizard of Oz, Caractacus Potts in Chitty Chitty Bang Bang JR., Blitzen/Rudolph understudy in Rudolph the Red-Nosed Reindeer JR., and Erik in Roald Dahl's Matilda the Musical. Freya thanks her friends and family for all their support!

Robby Felber (Nicely) is very excited to be in his first production of Guys and Dolls! You might have seen him as Hans in his previous production of Disney's Frozen JR. here at Grandstreet or as Modest the monster in Symphony kid's There's a Monster in my Closet. Robby would like to give a shout out to his fellow cast mates for making this the most fun show to be in!

John Owen Jenkins (Rusty) is an 8th grader at Helena Middle School, proud son of Jen and John, brother of Etta Vi, and 4th-year Grandstreet-er. She would like to thank the talented young actors, her Grandstreet family, and her real family for their love and support.

Liz Adler (Director & Music Director) loves musical theatre in all its forms, and has had the gift of being involved in over seven years of Grandstreet shows—from a life in Iowa for The Bridges of Madison County, to every underwater spectacle you can think of (The SpongeBob Musical, Disney's The Little Mermaid & Finding Nemo JR.), to the swamp this summer for Shrek the Musical. This one is for Paul—the Guy to my Doll, the destiny to my luck—"I love you most."

Mary Gegenhuber (Props Designer) was born in Milwaukee, WI., and moved to Montana in 1976. She started in theater at age 12 as an actor, but became a stage manager at age 16. In 2006, Mary became the Props Designer for Grandstreet Theatre. Besides Grandstreet, she has staged managed or designed props for The Last Chance Play Fest, Helena Ave Theatre, Ravensfeather Productions, Interwoven Studios, and the Helena Symphony. Mary dedicates every show to her mother Dolores who introduced her to the arts.

Mackenzie Jones (Set Designer) (she/her), originally from Kansas City, MO, has lived in Helena since 2019 and works at DPHHS. Previously, Mackenzie was the set designer for Grandstreet Theatre School's productions of Disney's Finding Nemo JR. and Alice in Wonderland. She also performs on the GST stage and has recently been seen in The Secret Garden, A Christmas Carol, and Lucky Stiff. Mackenzie enjoyed the challenge of merging two worlds into a design fit for Queens and Gamblers. "Sit down they're rockin' the throne!"

Errol Koch (Lighting Designer) is proud to join Grandstreet as the Lighting and Sound Manager. A seasoned theater artist with experience on and offstage, Errol has worked extensively throughout Montana and the Pacific Northwest in technical design, production management, and theatrical consulting. Layna Newhouse (Stage Manager) has been involved in theatre at Grandstreet for over 10 years. She began professionally stage managing last year with Disney's Frozen JR. Shows she has performed in include Disney's Alice in Wonderland JR and Disney and Cameron Mackintosh's Mary Poppins. Layna is also a recipient of the Wib and Esther M. Harrer scholarship. She thanks her family for always supporting her, and the production team and cast for their amazing dedication.

Paige O'Neill (Technical Director) (she/her) grew up, first, in the Pacific Northwest, then England, and now calls Helena home. She has a BFA Technical Theatre from the University of Montana and gained professional experience with Missoula Children's Theatre, Montana Repertory Theatre, and Fort Peck Summer Theatre before joining Grandstreet in 2018. Paige has loved building sets at GST. Her favorites include Treasure Island, Falsettos, Puffs, and Bright Star. Paige is active with the United States Institute for Theatre Technology, Inc. She would like to thank her chosen family for all their love and support.

Molly Roby (Choreographer) has been seen on stage and on the production teams for many Grandstreet shows over the last 10 years. She has been teaching dance and choreographing community and youth shows for 20 years. Some of her favorites shows she has choreographed include: Anything Goes, Roald Dahl's Matilda the Musical, Junie B. Jones JR. the Musical, My Fair Lady, Once Upon a Mattress, and Annie Get Your Gun! Molly believes community arts are such an important form of human connection. "The sooner we get kids exposed to dramatic and performing arts the better, as it leads to more empathetic, kind, and well-rounded kids!" Molly has found great joy working with this particular group in Guys and Dolls JR. Thank you for coming to support these incredibly talented, lovely, young people making our community a better place to live!

Molly Verseput (ASL Interpreter) is originally from Southern California, but moved to Montana several years ago. She began learning ASL and became immersed in the Deaf community when she was 15, attending Gallaudet University for part of undergrad. Molly began interpreting full-time in 2022 in local schools and for various community events. She loves interpreting the incredible shows here at Grandstreet as it brings her back to her theatre roots. Molly would like to thank the Deaf community and her friends and family for their continued support.

Dana Walls (ASL Interpreter) is thrilled to be interpreting alongside both Lady Luck and this amazing cast & crew of Guys & Dolls!

A 2012 graduate of the Portland Community College Interpreting program, he enjoys all types of interpreting, but theater remains his passion. Favorite past shows he's worked include Ain't Misbehavin', Fun Home, & Grandstreet's productions of Bright Star & Disney's Newsies. He remains deeply grateful to Grandstreet Theatre for their commitment to arts access for all.

Special thanks to his invaluable mentors, amazing team, all the lovely staff at Grandstreet & his wonderful wife.
